IMPORTANT INFORMATION

The information you provide in this document and through any other documentation, either directly or through your insurance broker, will be relied upon by the insurers to decide whether or not to accept your insurance and if so, on what terms.

If you do not understand or if you have any questions regarding any matter in this document, including these Important Notices, please contact us or your insurance broker before signing the Declaration at the end of this document.

Agent Of Insurers

Precision Underwriting Pty Ltd acts as the agent of the insurer and not as your agent when issuing insurance policies.

Your Duty Of Disclosure

Before You enter into a contract of general insurance with Us, You have a duty of disclosure under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984. The Act imposes a different duty the first time You enter into a contract of insurance with Us to that which applies when You vary, extend, or reinstate a contract. This duty of disclosure applies until a contract is entered into (or varied, extended, or reinstated as applicable).

Your Duty of Disclosure When You Enter Into a Contract With Us For The First Time

When You answer Our specific questions that are relevant to Our decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and on what terms, You must be honest and disclose to Us anything that You know and that a reasonable person in the circumstances would include in answer to the questions that are asked. It is important that You understand You are answering Our questions in this way for Yourself and anyone else that You want to be covered by a contract.

Your Duty of Disclosure When You Vary, Extend or Reinstate a Contract

When You vary, extend, or reinstate a contract with Us, Your duty is to disclose to Us every matter that You know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to Our decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms.

What You Do Not Need To tell Us

Your duty however does not require disclosure of any matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by Us
- that is of common knowledge
- that we know or, in the ordinary course of Our business as an insurer, ought to know, or
- as to which compliance with Your duty is waived by Us.

Non-disclosure

If You fail to comply with Your duty of disclosure, we may be entitled to reduce Our liability under a contract of insurance in respect of a claim, cancel a contract of insurance or both.

If Your non-disclosure is fraudulent, we may also have the option of avoiding a contract from its beginning and treat it as if it never existed.

PRIVACY

We are committed to protecting your privacy in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and the Australian Privacy Principles.

The information provided in this document and any other documents provided to us will be dealt with in accordance with our Privacy Policy. By providing information in this document you consent to collection, use and disclosure of your personal information in accordance with our Privacy Policy.

If you do not provide the personal information requested or consent to its use and disclosure in accordance with our Privacy Policy, your application for insurance may not be accepted, we may not be able to administer your services/products, or you may be in breach of your duty of disclosure.

Our Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, disclose and handle your personal information as well as your rights to access and correct your personal information.
